

Assignment-21

Q 1. Write steps to create a connection between Access database and vb.net.

Step 1: To create the connection, right click on the data connection in the server explorer and click on Add connection.

Step 2: In the appeared Add connection dialog box, select the desired data source and select the database by clicking on the browse button.

Step 3: then click on test connection button to check the connection.

Step 4: Click on ok to connect the database.

